

Adam Regelbrugge, CPA, CIA

Adam graduated from NIU in 1987 and majored in accounting and finance. Adam started his career at Touche Ross (now Deloitte & Touche) is currently a partner in the Chicago office of Deloitte & Touche ("Deloitte") in the Audit and Enterprise Risk Services (AERS) practice, where he has more than 20 years of experience in accounting, auditing, risk management and control consulting.

Adam is the Midwest Regional leader of Deloitte's Internal Audit Services practice (one of seven across the country). In addition to this role, he serves as the Lead Client Service Partner and engagement partner on a number of strategic program accounts and internal audit clients. He has also been heavily involved as the engagement partner on many Sarbanes 404 Readiness projects. These projects have included working directly with senior executive management teams, internal audit functions, external auditors and audit committee's in developing efficient and effective 404 Readiness solutions. Adam has also served in the role as Director of Internal Audit of a publicly traded financial services company.

Adam is proud to serve on NIU's Department of Accountancy Executive Advisory Committee, is actively involved in Deloitte's campus recruiting activities at NIU and is the lead Deloitte partner liaison with NIU, including support of Deloitte's Professor of Accountancy program, which recently named Professor Don Tidrick as successor to Professor Curtis Norton who retired in 2005. Adam also supports NIU's new Academic and Athletic Performance Center, which also broke ground in 2005.

Adam's professional and civic affiliations include memberships and involvement with: the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the Institute of Internal Auditors, Illinois CPA Society, former Deloitte United Way Chairman in Chicago, and supporter of Share Your Soles, whose mission is helping those in need of shoes. He is a Certified Public Accountant and a Certified Internal Auditor.