

Barry L. Shaw, CPA

Barry Shaw is a partner of Wolf & Company LLP with over thirty years of experience. Barry's areas of expertise include accounting, audit, tax and general business services including management consulting, performance improvement, operations reviews, forecasts and projections, and strategic planning to a variety of industries and disciplines.

Barry has spent his entire professional career in public accounting serving not-for-profit organizations and closely held businesses. He also heads up the audit and accounting work of employee benefits plans, providing consultative services related to these plans.

In addition to providing traditional accounting and tax services to his clients, Barry is a firm believer in offering each client value-added services that include consulting support and management assistance. Barry brings a unique perspective to every engagement that allows him to maximize opportunities, minimize exposure and risk and identify key issues and challenges facing his clients.

Barry received his Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from Valparaiso University in Valparaiso, Indiana. He is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Illinois CPA Society and has involvement in various professional and community service activities.
